

NEW REGULATIONS
THE PHILADELPHIA CODE

The following regulations are hereby adopted under Chapter 9-102 of The Philadelphia Code.

TITLE 9. REGULATION OF BUSINESSES, TRADES AND PROFESSIONS

§ 9-102. Licenses and Permits.

* * *

Current Code Language:

(6) If any license fee, permit fee or other charge imposed by The Philadelphia Code is not paid when due, interest at the rate of one-half percent (0.5%) of the amount of the unpaid fee or charge and a penalty at the rate of one percent (1%) of the amount of the unpaid fee or charge shall be added for each month or fraction thereof during which the fee or charge shall remain unpaid and shall be collected together with the fee or charge.

Regulation:

(6)(R) The license fee for any renewable license which is eligible for renewal (i.e., not closed or revoked) is automatically imposed on the first day of the next license period. If the activity authorized by the license is discontinued, a request to close the license must be submitted to the Department in a format approved by the Department. Unless the license is affirmatively closed, the license fee, along with interest and penalty, will continue to accrue, regardless of the license expiration date. If payment is made within 60 days of the due date, the interest and penalty accrued during that period will automatically be waived.
